

Charlotte Community Stakeholder Listening Session

Wednesday,
April 12th
6:00-8:00pm

The Palmer Building
2601 E. 7th Street
Charlotte, NC
28204

Take an active role in enhancing the future of police-community relationships in your city.

As part of this project, the Police Foundation is holding a community stakeholder listening session to hear from community individuals, leaders and groups regarding the community relationship with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department (CMPD). During the meeting, Police Foundation team members will also provide a brief overview of the project and the independent Critical Incident Review that the team will be conducting. Your participation in this listening session will help guide our efforts to identify potential strategies that CMPD can adopt to engage with the community, understand police-community relationships in Charlotte and identify ways to move the community and the CMPD forward.

If you would like to contact the Police Foundation team, or cannot attend the listening session, please email PFinfo@policefoundation.org or call 202-833-1460.

The Police Foundation is a national, non-profit, non-partisan organization that remains consistent with its commitment to advance policing through innovation and science, and has been on the cutting edge of policing for over 45 years. The Police Foundation's work is informed by available evidence and aims to increase public safety and strengthen communities. Other relevant CRI-TA reports relevant to this project, include Maintaining First Amendment Rights and Public Safety in North Minneapolis: An After-Action Assessment of the Police Response to Protests, Demonstrations, and Occupation of the Minneapolis Police Department's Fourth Precinct and Collaborative Reform Initiative: An Assessment of the St. Louis County Police Department. For more information on the Police Foundation, please visit <https://www.policefoundation.org/> and for a full list of Publications, please visit <https://www.policefoundation.org/publications>

Charlotte Community Stakeholder Listening Session

Wednesday,
April 12th
6:00-8:00pm

The Palmer Building
2601 E. 7th Street
Charlotte, NC
28204

Take an active role in enhancing the future of police-community relationships in your city.

As part of this project, the Police Foundation is holding a community stakeholder listening session to hear from community individuals, leaders and groups regarding the community relationship with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department (CMPD). During the meeting, Police Foundation team members will also provide a brief overview of the project and the independent Critical Incident Review that the team will be conducting. Your participation in this listening session will help guide our efforts to identify potential strategies that CMPD can adopt to engage with the community, understand police-community relationships in Charlotte and identify ways to move the community and the CMPD forward.

If you would like to contact the Police Foundation team, or cannot attend the listening session, please email PFinfo@policefoundation.org or call 202-833-1460.

The Police Foundation is a national, non-profit, non-partisan organization that remains consistent with its commitment to advance policing through innovation and science, and has been on the cutting edge of policing for over 45 years. The Police Foundation's work is informed by available evidence and aims to increase public safety and strengthen communities. Other relevant CRI-TA reports relevant to this project, include Maintaining First Amendment Rights and Public Safety in North Minneapolis: An After-Action Assessment of the Police Response to Protests, Demonstrations, and Occupation of the Minneapolis Police Department's Fourth Precinct and Collaborative Reform Initiative: An Assessment of the St. Louis County Police Department. For more information on the Police Foundation, please visit <https://www.policefoundation.org/> and for a full list of Publications, please visit <https://www.policefoundation.org/publications>