

MARCH SPECIALS:

The New Jazz Archive:
Nina Simone

Sunday, March 3 at 3pm
Monday March 4 at 10pm

Host Jeff Haas takes a look inside Nina Simone's private diaries and chat with Simone biographer Nadine Cohodas about Nina's life and music—from her roots as a gospel and classical musician to her place as one of the fiercest voices for civil rights. We'll also listen to some of Nina's best from her more than 30 year reign as the High Priestess of Soul.

The New Jazz Archive:
Billie Holiday

Sunday, March 24 at 3pm
Monday, March 25 at 10pm

Host Jeff Haas takes a look at the life and music of the great Billie Holiday. We'll talk with biographer Robert O'Meally about Lady Day's musical genius and travel the hard road she took on her way to becoming one of jazz's most beloved voices. We'll also chat with Jazz at Lincoln Center curator Phil Schaap about the great Louis Armstrong's role in shaping her musical voice, and talk with the best-selling author who's channeled Billie Holiday to create a brand new version of her autobiography for young people.

Witness: Women's History Month

Friday, March 8 at 9:30am

The BBC World Service presents remarkable stories of women's history, told by the women who were there. Selected from its Witness program, audiences will hear moving, inspiring and even outrageous stories about a few of the most important women in living memory. They'll hear recollections from Eleanor Roosevelt's granddaughter, meet a woman who ran a secret school for girls in Afghanistan under the Taliban, and retrace the astounding journey taken by the remains of one of Latin America's most popular female politicians.

Irish Inspirations:
Women in Irish
Classical Music

Friday, March 15 at 11am

Host Andrea Blain presents a musical exploration of the Emerald Isle, with a focus on women composers and performers, and music with female themes.

"Irish Inspirations: Women in Irish Classical Music" features pianist, author and broadcaster Una Hunt. Audiences will also hear works by Joan Trimble, Amy Beach, Percy Grainger and Shaun Davey, as well as works that celebrate the Irish Colleen and several lassies called Molly.

Irish Inspirations host Andrea Blain.

Dear Public Radio 90 Members,

Thank you for doing more than listening to Public Radio 90, thank you for joining together to help make sure everyone across our upper Great Lakes region can continue enjoying the unique blend of local and national programming offered on WNMU-FM.

Thank you to our 163 listeners who gave nearly $35,000 during our February fundraising campaign and to everyone who gives throughout the year.

Many thanks to our phone volunteers who took pledge calls and answered listener questions throughout the campaign. We couldn't do it without you.

Welcome to our 21 listeners who joined us as first-time members, or reactivated their memberships, and a big thank you to our 33 listener members who gave $5,873 above and beyond their annual membership contributions.

You are the special people who will ensure that future generations can enjoy and cherish all that local public radio has to offer.

Thanks so much for your continued support of WNMU-FM, Public Radio 90. You understand that it takes money to keep free public radio on the air and we really appreciate the financial gifts you give each year.

Sincerely,

Evelyn Massaro, Station Manager

Public Radio 90's Annual Poetry Month Celebration

April is 'National Poetry Month,' and Public Radio 90 is continuing its tradition of showcasing the work of area poets, from NMU students to regional writers.

If you would like to be a part of the celebration and read your work on the air, send an email to Kurt Hauswirth at khauswir@nmu.edu to set up a time to record. (Best times are weekday mornings 9-9:30 and weekday afternoons 12-2:30. Other times can be arranged as well.)

Then tune in weekdays all during April at 9:35 am and 3 pm eastern as listeners share their words and images during Public Radio 90's National Poetry Month celebration.

Pieces will also be posted to our WNMUFM.ORG website and Facebook page each day for you to share with other listeners.

ALL TIMES EASTERN

Monday-Friday at 9am

Monday, Feb. 25 through Friday, Mar. 15, Jim Fleming and Susan Sweeney read The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Society by Mary Ann Shaffer and Annie Barrows.

January 1946: London is emerging from the shadow of the Second World War, and writer Juliet Ashton is looking for her next book subject. Who could imagine she would find it in a letter from a man she's never met. Written with warmth and humor as a series of letters, this novel is a celebration of the written word and of finding connection in the most surprising ways. Musical theme: Eric Coates "Summer Days Suite"

Monday, March 18 through Friday, March 29, Norman Gilliland reads The Hidden Life of Trees by Peter Wohlleben.

Drawing on groundbreaking discoveries, the author presents the science behind the secret and previously unknown life of trees and their communication abilities. Musical theme: Franz Schubert: Symphony No. 5 in Bb: Allegro; San Francisco SO.

Chapter a Day from Wisconsin Public Radio has been airing in Wisconsin since 1927 and features a variety of readers. Episodes are available online for one week after they air. www.wpr.org/programs/chapteraday

Deutsche Welle Festival

- 3/7 - Schumann concerto – An enigmatic work banned by the composer's widow and premiered over eight decades after his death: the brilliant violinist Carolin Widmann has devoted a lot of thought and care to Schumann's Violin Concerto. We'll hear her thoughts – and her performance.
- 3/14 - Kopatschinskaja – "Time and Eternity" is the name of a project dreamed up by the Moldavian violinist Patricia Kopatschinskaja, who performs and leads the Camerata Bern in this program of mostly 20th century works.
- 3/21 - Haydn Festival – A ten-day fest dedicated to Papa Haydn with the splendid Concerto Köln as orchestra-in-residence: this one has three Haydn symphonies and an opera overture – and two works for the mandolin.

- 3/28 - Baltic Sea – Ten countries border on the Baltic Sea: Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Latvia, Lithuania, Norway, Poland, Russia and Sweden. Proving that they are united, not separated by that body of water are musicians from all ten, led by an exciting and innovative conductor whose programs are invariably standouts.

Sundays at 7:30 am ET
Repeats Mondays at 3:30 pm ET

3/2-3 Michigan Teacher Shortages

Some local school districts and even whole states have teaching vacancies they can't seem to fill, including many for substitute teachers. We learn how it stands for Michigan and the Upper Peninsula from NMU Associate Dean of Education Joe Lubig, Norway-Vulcan Area Schools Superintendent Louis Steigerwald and Marquette-Area Schools Human Resources Manager Jenna Smith. (Repeat from February)

3/9-10 Skilled Trades Gap

A review of skilled trades issues across the state and region, with an update on work programs and education initiatives designed to address them.

3/16-17 Chronic Wasting Disease

A program focusing on continuing efforts to prevent the spread of Chronic Wasting Disease in deer. Topics include the science of CWD, recent changes in the law governing cross border issues, a new study on deer migration patterns, and a new emphasis on monitoring deer during hunting season. Features guests from the Michigan DNR. (Repeat from November 2017)

3/23-24 USDA and the U.P.

A discussion of the U.S. Agriculture Department's role in Michigan rural development, with an emphasis on the Upper Peninsula.

3/30-31 PFAS

Toxic substances called PFAS, once used at Air Force bases and commercial sites, have become an environmental management priority. We discuss PFAS contamination, health concerns and clean-up with MDEQ District Supervisor Chuck Thomas, Marquette County Health Department Environmental Health Director Patrick Jacuzzo, & White Water Associates Lab Director Bette Premo, from Amasa, Michigan via ZOOM. (Repeat from February)

Program topics are subject to change in order to cover timely news and events.

Peninsula Performances

*Fridays at 8 pm
& Tuesdays at 1 pm
with host Kurt Hauswirth*

3/1 & 5: Recitals – Hayley Kukulis & Kayla Wiltzius

Two senior recitals await your ears with soprano Hayley Kukulis and saxophonist Kayla Wiltzius. Hayley's performance from March 2018 featured music of Durante and Bach, while Kayla's performance from April 2018 includes Vivaldi and Villa-Lobos.

3/8 & 12: Bach Festival Concert & Woodwind Studio Recital

The Bach Festival Concert was part of Bachfest Marquette in the fall of 2018, and featured an all Bach program, for instrumentation from duets to quintets. The Woodwind Studio Recital, also from that fall, featured Mozart, Handel and Charpentier.

3/15 & 19: NMU Faculty Recital Series & NMU Faculty Jazz Trio

The NMU Music Department Faculty presented a program to kick off the Fall semester of 2018. This performance happened during Bachfest Marquette, so they performed mostly music of Bach, along with pieces by Bernstein, Baum and more. The faculty jazz trio concert features Mark Flaherty at cornet, Dave Ziegner at guitar, and Harry South at bass.

3/22 & 26: Upper Peninsula Youth Orchestra Concerts

Youth orchestral performers took to the Reynolds Recital Hall stage, performing music of Tchaikovsky, Hindemith and Britten in May 2018, and also in June of 2017, with music of Debussy, Sibelius and Stravinsky.

3/29 & 4/2: Recitals – Jon Letts, Kyle Hantz & Jacob Schut

A trio of senior recitals are featured this time, all from the Fall of 2016. Jon Letts, bass, performed Eccles and Satie; Kyle Hantz led a Baritone recital; Jacob Schut, saxophone, presented Fiocco, Piazzolla and more.
